AYER'S
CHERRY
ECTORAL,
FOR THE RAPID [illegible] OF
Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BRIMFIELD, MASS., [illegible]
J. C. AYER: I do not hesitate to say the remedy I have ever found for Coughs, [illegible]eness, Influenza, and the concomitant [illegible]ptoms of a Cold, is your [illegible] constant use in my practice and my family [illegible] the last ten years has shown it to possess [illegible]rior virtues for the treatment of these [illegible]plaints. EBEN KNIGHT, M. D.

[illegible] B. MORTLEY, Esq., of UTICA, N. Y., writes: "I have [illegible] PECTORAL myself and in my family ever since you [illegible] and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever [illegible] a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars [illegible] than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

[illegible] AYER: I will cheerfully certify your PECTORAL [illegible] remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, C[illegible] the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity [illegible] appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine [illegible] HIRAM CONKLIN, M.

[illegible]OS LEE, Esq., MONTEREY, [illegible] writes, 3d Jan., 1856: [illegible] tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six [illegible] many medicines without relief; finally tried your P[illegible] the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved [illegible] in my throat and lungs; less than one half the [illegible] me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest [illegible] as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, [illegible] remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, PA., Feb. 4, 18[illegible]
[illegible]: Your CHERRY PECTORAL is performing marvellous [illegible] section. It has relieved several from alarming sy[illegible] consumption, and is now curing a man who has labored [illegible] affection of the lungs for the last forty years.
HENRY L. PARKS, Merch[illegible]

A. RAMSEY, M. D., ALBION, MONROE CO., IOWA, [illegible] 1856: "During my practice of many years I have [illegible] equal to your CHERRY PECTORAL for giving ease [illegible] consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

[illegible] might add volumes of evidence, but the most convi[illegible] of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects [illegible]

Consumption.

[illegible]bably no one remedy has ever been known which [illegible] and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human [illegible] reach; but even to those the CHERRY PECTORAL affords [illegible] comfort.

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, March 5, 18[illegible]
[illegible] AYER, LOWELL: I feel it a duty and a pleasure [illegible] you what your CHERRY PECTORAL has done for my [illegible] had been five months laboring under the dangerous [illegible] of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure [illegible] relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, [illegible] city, where we have come for advice, recommended [illegible] medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your [illegible] has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong [illegible] to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself [illegible] Yours, with gratitude and regard,
ORLANDO SHELBY, OF SHELBYVILLE.

[illegible], do not despair till you have tried AYER'S C[illegible]. It is made by one of the best medical chemists [illegible], and its cures all round us bespeak the high merits [illegible] —Philadelphia Ledger.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

[illegible] sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been [illegible] their utmost to produce this best, most perfect pur[illegible] is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown [illegible] PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the [illegible] medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the [illegible] men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but power[illegible] Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital acti[illegible] body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify [illegible] and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors [illegible] and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered [illegible] into their natural action, and impart healthy tone [illegible] to the whole system. Not only do they cure the [illegible] complaints of every body, but also formidable and [illegible] diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. [illegible] produce powerful effects, they are at the same time [illegible] doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed [illegible] children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to [illegible] being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of [illegible] have been made which surpass belief were they not [illegible] by men of such exalted position and character [illegible] the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen [illegible] have lent their names to certify to the public [illegible] of my remedies, while others have sent me [illegible] of their conviction that my Preparations contribute [illegible] to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow-men. [illegible] Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my [illegible] Almanac, containing directions for their use, and [illegible] of their cures of the following complaints:—

[illegible]tiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, [illegible] Headache arising from a foul Stomach, Nausea, [illegible] Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and Pain arising there[illegible] [illegible]ancy, Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous and Cutaneous [illegible] which require an evacuant Medicine, Scrofula or [illegible] They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the [illegible] cure many complaints which it would not be supposed [illegible] reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia [illegible] Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kid[illegible] and other kindred complaints arising from a low [illegible] or obstruction of its functions.

[illegible] not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other [illegible] make more profit on. Ask for AYER'S PILLS, and take [illegible] "No other they can give you compares with this [illegible] value or curative powers." The sick want the best [illegible] for them, and they should have it.

Why the Democracy wants Peace

The New York News says civil strife is a war against Democracy, and if longer protracted, will destroy the Democratic party." In the same article it also declares that "the fate of the Democracy unless the war be speedily concluded, is written—it is annihilation." These are the frank confessions of the leading organ of the Confederate Democracy in the North—the mouth piece of Fernando Wood and his school of politicians. We have no doubt that they contain the truth, and that in them is a great part of the secret motive which operates upon all that class of men. The war is destruction to what they call Democracy, for it seeks the overthrow of the rebellion, while that is laboring for the success of treason. If the war is wrong, it must be so because the rebellion is right—because secession is right—because dissolution is right—because the whole catalogue of outrages and crimes which have attended the great conspiracy to destroy the Government, are righteous acts and worthy of praise instead of blame. If on the other hand, the war is right, then that sort of Democracy which the News defends, and which it fears will be annihilated, unless hostilities cease, must be wrong. If it cannot live and maintain itself while the war for the Union continues, it had better be annihilated, because it is incompatible with the safe existence of the Republic—with the prosperity of the Union. The war is necessary to secure these results, until the rebellion is crushed, and its authors are compelled to submit to the Constitution and the laws; the war will give us the Union and future security, and if Democracy or anything else would obstruct the war, it is an agent of treason, and full of shame and infamy. We take the News at its own words, and insist with it, that the faithful prosecution of the war will overthrow the Democracy which it advocates, and it is very likely that the defeat of the Government and the cessation of the war would benefit that same Democracy, because it would give strength to treason and rebellion. The question is a simple one: Shall Democracy be heeded and considered, when it demands peace so that its own worthless life may be spared? Shall it not rather be hurled into utter and everlasting confusion and destruction, while it confesses, by its advocates, that its aims and purposes are opposed to all measures necessary for the salvation of national freedom and even of national existence?

SOUTHERN CONTEMPT FOR NORTHERN TRAITORS.—An army correspondent says that "when Gen. Jenkins, commanding a whole force during the raid into Pennsylvania, was in Chambersburg, he engaged in conversation with a Union man. As the former was speaking a copperhead stepped up, made himself and his sentiments known, and very obligingly offered to impart any information which might be desired. Jenkins glanced at him for a moment, and then, with an expression of countenance that nearly frightened the skulking vagabond out of his wits, ordered him to leave his presence, remarking that if he had him on the other side he should adorn the first tall tree they came to."

Many of the rebel generals, though deluded, are honorable and high minded men, and it is impossible for them not to feel contempt for the mean and craven spirited wretches who are traitors to their country and its government. Stonewall Jackson once stripped the shoulder straps from an unworthy officer in the Union army who had skulked from his regiment when it was going into battle, suffering himself to be captured.—Boston Journal.

AS TRUE IN OREGON AS ANYWHERE.—The Chicago Tribune, a radical Republican paper, says: "In a long political experience we have uniformly observed that office holders who, when their actions are criticized, get mad and abusive, and by way of diverting attention from themselves, charge those who presume to question their infallibility with being disappointed or disloyal politicians, are either weak and incompetent or wicked, and deserving thorough rebuke and removal. Such functionaries are very apt to imagine that they are the government, and seem disposed to assume supreme authority, forgetting that they are only public servants, and ought to be civil and respectful, instead of domineering and despotic. They also often—when they suggest suspicions against the fidelity of others, who disapprove their course—cause their own integrity to be justly doubted, and the question is not inaptly asked whether their professions of patriotism are not bought with the wages of office."

GRAPHIC SKETCH OF THE CONFEDERATE CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR IN CALIFORNIA.—A writer in the Placerville News says, "John G Downey is an apothecary by profession and a broker by instinct; was Governor of California by accident; is by chance an Irish man, and by choice a Copperhead."

SPECULATION IN MINING.—The California papers are full of predictions that great reverses are very soon to affect those who have been so wildly dealing in the multitude of stocks in the market in that State. Vast sums have been embarked in schemes, which it seems to be admitted can never be of any value or profit, and even the stocks in mines having an established reputation, has been selling at prices far greater than was warranted by their actual product. Of course, the latter will have a fair and reasonable value, in spite of the struggles of stock holders, but the former we have no doubt will shortly explode, leaving only thin air as the property of the half crazy men who thought they were rich because they owned so many shares in some soap bubble company. The Nevada Transcript has the following rational remarks on the subject:

We are informed on the authority of men well versed in the matter, that a collapse is about to follow the silver speculations that have been madly carried on for two years or more. There is evidence that the crisis is at hand in the fact of the great depreciation in the price of stocks, even in the best claims, during the last month. There is probably not a mine in Nevada Territory whose "feet" will sell for as much as they would a month ago by ten or fifteen per cent, and the majority of stocks have depreciated astonishingly. The people have gone wild on silver speculations. It must have been evident long ago to every accurate observer, that there was not a solid basis for all this speculation. It was impossible that one tenth of all the mining claims located in Nevada Territory could be of any value. Silver, nor any other precious metal, underlies the surface of a thousand square miles in one body. There are ledges that are rich, and lasting as time, but the land one hundred miles wide on each side of the Comstock is not necessarily good for anything except to excite the hopes of simpletons and get their money with, when divided up by companies with high sounding names. Wild cat speculations have been in the business of Washoe operators, and more money has been made to a few dealing in worthless stocks, than has yet been extracted from the Comstock lead.

INTERESTING TO FARMERS.—We have received the following documents from the Commissioner of Agriculture, in relation to the privilege of franking packages of seeds, in the United States. The establishment of the Department of Agriculture has been one of wise measures of this Administration, and, notwithstanding the difficulties caused by the rebellion, this Department, under the efficient management of Commissioner Newton, is producing great benefits to the farming interest of the nation.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
APPOINTMENT OFFICE
WASHINGTON CITY, July 7, 1863

SIR—The sub-division of the 42d instruction under the new Post Office law, is hereby amended by striking out the word twelve and inserting thirty two before the word ounces, so that it shall read as follows: "The weight of packages of seeds, cuttings, roots, and scions to be franked, is limited to thirty two ounces."

By order of the Postmaster General
ALEX W. RANDALL,
1st Assistant P. M General

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE,
WASHINGTON, July 7, 1863

At the suggestion of the Post Office Department, that the above order should be published as extensively as possible, you will confer a favor on this Department and on the farmers of the country, by giving it a place in your paper. It will be seen that the right to send the usual weight of seeds, cuttings, &c, under the frank of this Department, has not been abridged.

Very respectfully yours,
ISAAC NEWTON,
Commissioner

FROM HUMBOLDT BASIN.—We are permitted by Mr A B Woodard, of this city, to make the following extract from a private letter received by him from E. L. Lewis, who is now at work in those mines, which are located near Auburn. It is dated July 19th.

Since I last wrote you, I have been busily engaged in mining. Our claims are paying us well. Yesterday I found a piece weighing nearly a half pound; it is solid gold, and the largest that was ever taken out in this camp. It is over four inches long, and varies in width from one to one and a half inches, and is about one quarter of an inch thick. We have four other specimens, each weighing about a quarter of a pound, which was never excelled in this vicinity. We have eight men at work for $5 per day. The claim adjoining ours is paying equally as well. They are taking out with one rocker from $200 to $250 per day, and that I call tolerable fair.

This has been an unusually dry season. The water is very scarce, and there is but little sluicing done at present. Men from Bannock City and Placerville tell me that the lack of water is the great drawback in that vicinity. My partner and I have struck a good gold quartz lode, which prospects $300 per ton. This is the richest place in gold that I ever saw.

AN INCIDENT IN MR. SEWARD'S LIFE.—A correspondent of an Eastern paper, writing from Auburn, N. Y., after describing the private residence of the Secretary of State, tells the following:

Mr Seward is at the present time a wealthy man, but when he returned to his home after serving out his gubernatorial term, it is said he had only eleven dollars in cash, and was in debt $20,000. His father was a rich but penurious old gentleman, and refused to assist the rising son in this his time of necessity. A story is told that on one occasion a resident of Seneca Falls, hearing of Governor Seward's financial straits, borrowed of Dr Seward, the father, $10,000 by mortgaging his property, and when the papers were executed and the check handed to him, the borrower, in the presence of Dr Seward, passed the check to Governor Seward, with the remark—"There, William, take that and give me your due bill for the amount. I can help you if your father will not." From another source came aid in the form of $10,000 advanced fees for counsel in patent suits; and thus Mr Seward squared off with the world, and began to extort from it by degrees a living, a competence, and finally abundant wealth, along with honors which the Presidency itself would now scarcely overtop or outweigh.

THE EMIGRATION.—The emigrants from the States are now daily arriving in large numbers at Boise. A great many of them stop in the mines. Some go into the Powder river and Grand Ronde valleys, and others continue on towards the Willamette.—Statesman.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to August 5th.

NEW YORK, August 5.—Gold without change, 127.

The riot cases came before the courts to-day. Some fifteen were present. Through the motions of counsel, only two were sentenced for robbery, one for 5 the other for 10 years in the penitentiary.

The Herald has the following, dated Rappahannock Station, August 4th: A force of the enemy's cavalry, with artillery, attacked Gen Buford's pickets this afternoon and drove them a mile, when the General went forward with the 1st brigade of his division under Col Chapman and the 2d under Worrell and drove them beyond Bradley's Station, establishing our picket lines for the night, half a mile farther out than they were before. Our loss was one killed and two or three wounded. Information from scouts and pickets indicate that the main body of the enemy has fallen back toward Fredericksburg and Gordonsville.

FORTRESS MONROE, August 4.—A Norfolk, Virginia, paper has the following:

HEAD QUARTERS NORTH CAROLINA, August 3.—Information has been received here of the cavalry and artillery expedition under Col. Spear. They crossed the Chowan river at Weldon, North Carolina, and proceeded to Jackson, twelve miles from Weldon near the Roanoke river, they discovered the enemy in strong force. Our troops made a splendid charge on the rebel advance and drove them back, capturing 70 prisoners. Our loss is two killed and three wounded. We took 40 bales of cotton and 100 horses. It has rained incessantly since the expedition started rendering roads impassable. The men suffered great hardships.

NEW YORK, August 5.—A Charleston letter dated July 31st says, the last day of July passed away with everything promising success though perhaps not as soon as some would wish. All things are working well. We know that anxiety is felt in Charleston for the safety of the city. Last week there was hanging from the parapets of Sumter, as a protection to the walls, lines of cotton bales. It told us plainly that 15-inch shot were equal to its destruction. But the cotton bales having been fired by their own guns, they were obliged to take them down. They are now piled away in scorched heaps behind the Fort. Everything betokens fearfulness on the part of the rebels here, which encourages us.

FORTRESS MONROE, Aug 5.—The Charleston Mercury of July 28th says there were about 27 vessels inside the bar yesterday, among them the Ironsides and six monitors and also 25 in Stono Inlet.

CAIRO, Aug. 5.—The splendid new steamer Ruth, valued at $150,000, burned last night opposite Island No 10. She was en route from St Louis to Vicksburg. She had on board eight paymasters with their clerks, a number of passengers, $2,500,000, 600 tons of freight, 200 mules and cattle. Boat and cargo are a total loss. In five minutes after the fire broke out the upper works were a mass of flames. She was headed to shore and struck the bank with full force, the fire having driven the engineers from their posts. As she struck a number of passengers jumped ashore, but the stern soon swung around down stream and the engines still working she started down stream again. When she left shore there were about 30 persons on board, all of whom must have perished. A squad of soldiers on board, as a guard for the money, acted heroically, and stood by the boxes containing money until it was certain they were all consumed. The boxes were iron bound and [illegible] heavy to move. Five soldiers are known to be lost. The crew were saved with the exception of the cook, two deck hands and the chambermaid.

Thanksgiving Day at Vancouver.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

It [illegible] you are informed that Thanksgiving day was duly observed by the citizens of Vancouver. At the Methodist Church the religious exercises were conducted in the morning by the Rev Mr Raynor and Rev M. Bagley. The latter gentleman preached a pointed, sensible and eloquent sermon. A meeting was extemporized for the evening, designated by the President thereof, S W Brown, Esq, as a "Union Jubilee."

The large number of ladies and gentlemen that attended on the occasion evidenced that the right spirit prevailed. Brief and appropriate remarks were made by L H Imes Esq, Hon E P Oliphant, General Alvord, Hon J E Wyche, J J McGilvra, Esq, and Rev J O Raynor. The intervals were filled by excellent and appropriate music from the choir. The "Red, White and Blue," as sung by the youthful Ericksons, was a pleasant feature in the performances, and elicited marked applause.

If outward demonstrations mean anything, pleasure and gratification to those who were present may be set down as a "fixed fact." Amount of collection, morning and evening, in aid of the Ladies' Sanitary Society of this place, $40 45. Services were also held at the Catholic Church, but none at the Episcopal Church in consequence of the absence of the pastor, Dr McCarty.

UNION.

HOW IS IT?—If the Democracy of the Pacific coast do not sympathize with the rebellion and desire its success, how does it happen that they never condemn it?

If they do not think the insurgent States are right in this quarrel, how does it happen that they never say they are wrong?

If they are not opposed to the government of the United States—unless administered by pro slavery Democrats—how comes it that they never have a word to say against the usurpation in Dixie?

If they are not opposed to furnishing men and means to carry on the war for the preservation of the Union, how comes it that they make a hero of Vallandigham, who voted against every measure necessary to those objects?

If they are not meaning to incite resistance to the authority and contempt for the office of the lawful chief magistrate of that republic, how happens it that they allow men in their ranks to hurrah for Jeff Davis and never denounce the practice?

Finally, if they are not more or less inimical to the cause of the Union, how does it come that every unequivocal Secessionist and rebel refugee is to be found in their party only, not merely tolerated there, but honored and advanced?—Appeal.

PONY EXPRESS.—Messrs Davis, Patterson & Co. says the Walla Walla Statesman, are now engaged in carrying a weekly pony express between Salt Lake and Bannock City. They brought in to the Boise mines the news of the capture of Vicksburg and the battle at Gettysburg seven days earlier than it reached there from Portland. They propose to continue to bring in the Atlantic news (which is telegraphed to Salt Lake) in five to seven days less time than it can be obtained from below.

NARROW ESCAPE.—On Sunday even a party of gentlemen were bathing river below the city, one of them, in amphibious enthusiasm, undertook the difficult task of swimming across the W ette. Though a powerful swimmer, came exhausted when he reached the of the river, and was carried down the Fortunately, instead of wasting his rem strength in unavailing efforts to re shore, he had the presence of mind to r still, floating upon the water. His frie once perceived his dangerous situation procuring a skiff, promptly hurried assistance. When picked up he was helpless and almost insensible, indeed he remained in the water another min would undoubtedly have perished. We and that he has slight objections to fu quatic excursions of the same kind.

RECORDER'S COURT.—George Palmatie ought before the Recorder yesterday, c with assaulting Mr. Theodore Miner, in the store of Mr H W Corbett. It ears that Miner was endeavoring to sep brace of belligerent dogs, when Palmu who is the envied proprietor of the most ions of the combatants, became highly nt at this interference with his ref port, and forthwith pitched into the med g Miner. This amusement was spee ought to a close by officer Townsend, llared the doughty Palmatier and conve m to the Recorder's Court, where he was uested to hand over $10 and costs, or e for five days within the precincts of ty Jail.

CITY GUARDS.—The Portland City Gua held a meeting last evening in the coun om, Mr. Sims in the chair. The only b ness transacted was the adoption of a res to reorganize the company under the c tution and by-laws of the old Jeffer uards. THE WEATHER yesterday was as agreeab the most fastidious could desire. Bri shine and cooling breezes prevailed d the entire day. The thermometer at f clock last evening stood at 79° in the sh d 101° in the sun.

SAFE.—Mr D Wertheimer who fell behi company he was travelling with from ines and who, it was feared had fallen ctim to the "road agents," arrived at hon safe last evening.

The bill offered on this occasion exceptionable, and one that will certainl et with the approval of all true admire select theatricals. The performances com ence with the beautiful comedy of "Sti aters Run Deep," and conclude with th ever to-be forgotten Burtonian comedy oodles." REBEL JOURNALIZING.—From a veritable y of the Raleigh (North Carolina) Pro ss of June 29th we copy the following m

The Yankees are all being killed up, and shall have peace in about six weeks. After ery fight the telegraph tells us that "the emy lost heavily—no one hurt on our side." e telegraph is a great institution. Accord g to its statement Grant has lost nearly a lf million of men since the siege of Vicks rg commenced. On this subject the Mobile ribune says:

An ingenious friend of ours, highly gifted the science of collating statistics, sends us following from his place of seclusion in country:

"We have multitudinous rumors up here om Vicksburg. I figured up a few of them ently and the result was that Grant had 365,000 killed, 1,823,000 wounded and 000 000) prisoners since he commenced attack upon the Hill City, and that he ll had a tremendous army left! Most of e rumors are implicitly believed by the ople hereabouts. I am somewhat skeptical though I have no doubt Grant will be driven ay from Vicksburg. The story of the cap re of sixteen hundred of the enemy's gun ats at Port Hudson was rather staggering as not universally credited, but the report king of five hundred at Vicksburg, crews namnent and all went down like hot cakes th fresh butter.

An old lady from a temperance village lat attended a party in town where, of cours ampagne was served and was prevailed on to take a glass. She drank two, when macking her lips she exclaimed, "Well ay be a wicked drink, but it's good."

A Little More Glory Hallelujah.

The right man is found and he's in the proper place
He's giving Lee's marauders a "two-forty" [illegible]
And not a rebel will dare to show his face
While Meade is marching on
Glory glory hallelujah glory glory hallelujah
Glory glory hallelujah our flag is marching on

Though others brave and true have essayed our hosts to lead
Yet we greet the equal valor [illegible] with great speed
That disturbed the hungry rebels who had gone up North to feed—
When Meade came marching on

And not alone in victory [illegible] our brave [illegible]
Far down the Mississippi the rebels have come to grief—
On the stubborn hills of Vicksburg now floats in proud relief
The flag of Washington

Ulysses is untiring he never will say die;
His courage and his patience all rebel arts defy
They'd better hunt their holes when our legions [illegible] nigh,
With Grant to lead them on

Port Hudson, too, has weakened—the Mississippi's free—
And trade again will open from Cairo to the sea
They swore they'd keep this stronghold but Banks would not agree
The "Bobbin Boy" is marching on

Jeff Davis wants to treat, in his saucy bold little Vice
But Uncle Abe says "No we'll [illegible] in a trice
You can talk to our Generals and [illegible] better do it nice—
Or hang in Richmond town

Rebellion's getting feeble and its death is very near;
It sought to crush our freedom and rend our Union dear
But soon its leading spirits for a hotter place will steer—
While our flag waves proudly on

A Touching Scene

I was conversing not long since with a returned volunteer

'I was in the hospital, as nurse, for a long time,' said he, 'and assisted in taking off limbs, and dressing all sorts of wounds, but the hardest thing I ever did was to take my thumb off a man's thigh'

'Ah!' said I, 'how was that?'

Then he told me

It was a young man who had a severe wound in the thigh The ball passed completely through, and amputation was necessary The limb was cut off close up to the body, the arteries taken up, and he seemed to be doing well Subsequently one of the small arteries sloughed off An incision was made, and it was again taken up. 'It is well it was not the main artery,' said the surgeon, as he performed the operation, 'he might have bled to death before we could have taken it up' But Charley got on finely, and was a favorite with us all

I was passing through the ward one night about midnight, when suddenly, as I was passing near Charley's bed, he spoke to me:

'H——, my leg is bleeding again'

I threw back the bedclothes, and the blood spirted in the air The main artery had sloughed off

Fortunately I knew just what to do, and in an instant I had pressed my thumb on the place, and stopped the bleeding It was so close to the body that there was barely room for my thumb; but I succeeded in arousing one of the convalescents, and sent him for the surgeon, who came in on the run

'I am so thankful, H——,' said he, as he saw me, 'that you were up and knew what to do, for he must have bled to death before I could have got here'

But on examination of the case he looked exceedingly serious, and sent for other surgeons. All came that were within reach, and a consultation was held over the poor fellow. One conclusion was reached by all There was no place to work save the spot where my thumb was placed; they could not work under my thumb, and if I moved it he would bleed to death before the artery could be taken up There was no way to save his life

Poor Charley! He was very calm when they told him, and requested that his brother, who was in the same hospital, might be called up He came and sat down by the bedside, and for three hours I stood, and by the pressure of my thumb kept up the life of Charley, while the brothers had their last conversation on earth

It was a strange place for me to be in, to feel that I held the life of a fellow mortal in my hands as it were, and stranger yet to feel that an act of mine must soon cause that life to depart Loving the poor fellow as I did, it was a hard thought; but there was no alternative

The last words were spoken, Charley had arranged all his business affairs, and sent tender messages to absent ones, who had little dreamed how near their loved one stood to the grave The tears filled my eyes more than once as I listened to those parting words All was said and he turned to me

'Now, H——, I guess you had better take off your thumb'

'Oh, Charley! how can I?' I said

'But it must be, you know,' he replied, cheerfully 'I thank you very much for your kindness, and now good bye.'

He turned away his head; I raised my thumb—once more the life current gushed forth, and in three minutes poor Charley was dead

AN ANCIENT DEED —A most venerable and interesting relic of the olden times is now exhibited in Providence, Rhode Island It is the original deed for six hundred and twenty five acres of land on which now stands the city of Philadelphia, executed by William Penn, to Thomas Vernon, March 3, 1681, immediately upon the receipt of Penn's patent from King Charles the Second The instrument is in a remarkably good state of preservation, considering its age It is perfectly legible, the ink having faded but from few words, and in these the obliteration is slight It is written in the old English chirography prevalent at that period, and to it is fixed Penn's autograph The consideration for which this large amount of land (comprising what is now West Philadelphia) was conveyed was twelve pounds and ten shillings

A PLUCKY PARSON —Rev Dr Spear said in the recent Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (N S) at New York:

I will tell you a remark which was made by an elder of my church, and I endorse it He was talking to a "Peace Democrat" about the conscription law The Democrat said, 'You cannot execute the law in the State of New York' 'Why?' asked the elder 'The people will resist it' 'Who will resist it?' 'Why,' said the Democrat, 'I will resist it for one' 'Then,' said the other 'I for one will shoulder my musket and you are the first man that I would shoot'"

TAKING THE OTHER SIDE —The city of York, Pennsylvania, which has been assessed three hundred thousand dollars by its Rebel conquerers, is said to have contained some of the worst Copperheads in the country They, doubtless, have had a great deal to say about the oppression of the taxes occasioned by the war for the Union Some of them have, probably, talked about resisting their payment, and made up their minds that Jeff Davis' government was much more liberal than ours They will now have an opportunity of judging between the two We wonder how they like the other side of the question

EXPECTORANT
AND SANATIVE PILLS

HAVE BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC SO LONG and found so high a favor in every region of country where they have been sold (as [illegible]) that it would seem almost superfluous at this time to direct attention to them through the medium of the press Yet it is due to suffering humanity, and especially to that numerous class who, in the changeable climate of the Pacific Coast suffer from

Diseases of the Lungs & Throat,

Including and ending in CONSUMPTION many of whom may not have used this remedy that they should be allowed [illegible] of the cures where its influence has been useful in relieving complaints from which they are suffering The EXPECTORANT

Operates immediately upon the Disease,
SURELY AND SPEEDILY ERADICATING IT,

while the SANATIVE PILLS, by preserving regularity in the Bowels, and giving a healthy tone to the other internal organs, aid and assist the perfect operation of the former

Attention is asked to the following Certificates, selected at random from the mass in the possession of the proprietors

UPPER UWCHLAND, Chester Co, Pa, Sept 13 1858
Dr D JAYNE—Having been afflicted with ASTHMA and BRONCHITIS and having the advice of some of the most eminent physicians, whose skillful treatment of my case did not prove to be of any avail, I obtained no relief for my suffering, until I commenced the use of your EXPECTORANT After taking it for about three months I was entirely cured NATHAN PENNYPACKER

ASTORIA, Long Island, Jan 17 1860
I. W TINELLI, Esq New York—Sir As you well know I had been afflicted with BRONCHITIS, accompanied with the most painful tightness of the chest, and great difficulty in breathing, for nearly two months, and I had almost lost all confidence in the power of medical science when at your friendly suggestion I began the well known (but not enough known) "EXPECTORANT" of Dr Jayne, of Phila delphia Three or four days after having commenced to take it my cough had nearly subsided, the expectoration was easy, and the breathing quite free
I am now quite another man, and my general health has never been better
I remain my dear Tinelli, with esteem your servant and friend, J B MONTE

WINFIELD, Tuscarawas Co O, May 31, 1860
DR D JAYNE—Dear Sir One bottle of your Expectorant cured my daughter of the LUNG FEVER, after having been beyond the hopes of recovery During the attack she had a number of convulsions She is now perfectly well J H COFFMAN

BURLINGTON, Bradford Co, Pa, July 23, 1863.
DR. D JAYNE—Dear Sir My son was for one and a half years afflicted with a disease resembling CONSUMPTION For two years he was not able to labor He was finally induced to try your EXPECTORANT and PILLS, and after taking 10 bottles and some PILLS was completely cured, and is now able to labor every day JOHN HENRY
We would add to the above that we sold Mr Henry the medicine for his son, and know that the statement is true. MERRY, WILHELM & CO

AYER'S
FOR THE RAPID CURE OF
Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BRIMFIELD Mass 20th Dec 1855
DR. J C AYER I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness Influenza and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold is your CHERRY PECTORAL. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints EBEN KNIGHT M D

A B MORTLEY Esq UTICA N Y writes: "I have used your Pectoral myself and in my family ever since you invented it and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

BROTHER AYER I will cheerfully certify your Pectoral is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill and commend your medicine to our people. HIRAM CONK[illegible]

AMOS LEE, Esq MONTEREY IA writes, 3d [illegible]: "I had a tedious Influenza which confined me in doors six weeks, took many medicines without relief; finally tried your Pectoral by the advice of our clergyman The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

SIR Your CHERRY PECTORAL is performing marvellous cures in this section It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years.
HENRY L. PARK[illegible]

A A RAMSEY M D ALBION, MONROE Co, [illegible] Sept 6, 1855: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your CHERRY PECTORAL for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

We might add volumes of evidence but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.
Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach, but even to those the CHERRY PECTORAL affords relief and comfort.
ASTOR HOUSE NEW YORK CITY [illegible]
DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your CHERRY PECTORAL has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing until Dr Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine We bless his kindness, as we do your skill, for she has recovered from that day She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well.
Yours, with gratitude and regard

Consumptives do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all around us bespeak the high merits of its virtues —Philadelphia Ledger

Ayer's Cathartic Pi[illegible]
THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best most perfect purgative which is known to man Innumerable proofs are shown that these PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system Not only do they cure the every day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill While they produce powerful effects they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted suffering fellow men.
The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing directions for their use and certificates of their cures of the following complaints —
Costiveness Bilious Complaints Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from a foul Stomach Nausea, Indigestion Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Diseases which require an evacuant Medicine Scrofula or King's Evil They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.
Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on Ask for AYER'S PILLS, and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinsic value or curative powers The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it
